MISSION STATEMENT

To provide a quality Miss Rodeo Wyoming competition where contestants, spectators and the membership are enriched. Selecting an Ambassador of Good Will and Integrity who will promote the Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association and our Western Heritage throughout Wyoming. Providing "Miss Rodeo Wyoming" an Association which will support and promote all aspects of her reign and preparations for the Miss Rodeo America competition.

The Miss Rodeo Wyoming Pageant

A legacy of cherished memories, hopes, and dreams all began in Casper, WY in 1955. The first Miss Rodeo Wyoming Pageant was held during the Casper Nite Fair and Rodeo. That initial contest consisted of 14 entries. Following the Miss Rodeo Wyoming Pageant was the first ever Miss Rodeo America of the Rockies contest also held in Casper, WY. That title was later shortened to "Miss Rodeo America."

During that first pageant, Marilyn Scott, Miss Rodeo Wyoming, was selected as Miss Rodeo America of the Rockies. She represented Wyoming and America in the Miss Universe contest as well. Each year a new young lady is selected to help promote and preserve our western way of life and America's number one sport - RODEO.

The Miss Rodeo Wyoming Pageant is put on in a joint effort with the Wyoming State Fair and The Miss Rodeo Wyoming Association. It is held in Douglas, WY during the Wyoming State Fair.

The Douglas Sorority played a major role in organizing the Miss Rodeo Wyoming Pageant from the beginning until 2007. It was not until 1977 that the Miss Rodeo Wyoming Association (MRWA) was formed. Some of the original members included Dedee Merrit and Arlene Kensinger. The MRWA helps delegate funds that the queen raises at her coronation each year, the scheduling coordinator sets up appearances, and several major sponsors help make dreams become a reality.

Many prizes and awards have been given over the years. Crowns ranged from leather to jade. In 1971 the first traveling crown was established. It was made of Wyoming's own jade and rhinestones. It was retired in 1996 after 25 years of appearances. A similar replica took its place.

The individual beauty of the Wyoming Jade Crown stands out in any crowd and is very recognizable. It holds a history all its own with the special memories of the young girls that have grown into beautiful ladies in just one year under its spell. The young women who have worn it have warmed the hearts and touched the souls of many.

Her traveling expenses, as approved by the Miss Rodeo Wyoming Association, will be reimbursed as she travels and promotes the state of Wyoming, the many facets of our Agricultural Industry, and the great sport of rodeo. 9. HORSES

- a. A limited number of stall spaces will be provided for use by contestants free of charge, courtesy of the Wyoming State Fair. If a girl chooses to bring an additional horse for grand entries/flag carrying she may contact the pageant coordinator to determine if there will be enough room to stall the extra horse. Horses must be kept on the State Fair grounds.
- b. Contestants must provide their own horse, feed, and equipment. Time is limited, therefore we require parents/friends and/or sponsors to feed, water, clean stalls, and bathe horses. They may exercise your horse but are not allowed to ride your horse at any time during the competition as it will lead to disqualification. Lunging and ponying are permissible.

- c. All horses entering the State Fair grounds are required to have a current health, brand inspection, and cogins test (if from out of state). See Wyoming State Fair website for more information regarding paper requirements.
- d. In the event that a contestant's horse becomes ill or lame, another horse may be substituted at the discretion of the Miss Rodeo Wyoming Association. The substitute horse may not necessarily belong to the contestant involved.
- e. One vehicle feed pass per contestant will be provided to allow a parent/friend/sponsor on the State Fair grounds to feed your horse. However, this is not a general admission pass, only a feed pass which is restricted to certain hours.

10. COMPETITION

- a. The competition is limited in time. We have a lot to accomplish in a short period and we need your full cooperation in order to run things smoothly. We ask that you be prompt at all times. The judges will note any tardiness or other uncooperative behavior.
- b. We have not given boyfriends any time in your schedule since we feel that your concentration should be focused on competing in this pageant. It is demanding and requires all of your attention
- c. Cell phones, laptops, or any device with wi-fi capabilities will not be allowed during the competition. These items will need to be left in the possession of someone other than the contestant.
- d. As in all competition, whether it is a pageant or a game of sport, there can only be one first place winner. However, each one who has participated is an enriched individual because of the experience. It is said that it takes a greater person to be a gracious loser than to be a winner. In this instance, each contestant can do a lot in her own area to promote the great sport of rodeo and to create further interest in future Miss Rodeo Wyoming pageants.

11. JUDGING GUIDELINES

- a. A panel of at least three judges will be selected. A contestant's score will consist of the total of these three judge's scores.

- b. The Miss Rodeo Wyoming pageant is judged in three categories, all of which are equal: horsemanship, personality, and appearance. The judges have been instructed as to the type of girl the “Miss Rodeo Wyoming” contest seeks, exemplifying: sincerity, integrity, attractiveness, intelligence, high moral standards, maturity, public speaking ability, horsemanship ability, and knowledge of professional rodeo, current events, and horse science.
- c. Judges are selected for their expertise in all fields of the competition; horsemanship, personality, and appearance, etc. They should all have an awareness of correct western dress, they should be knowledgeable about the sport of professional rodeo, and they should be experienced western-type horsemen and horsewomen who are accustomed to judging horse events.
- d. Judges may attend any or all pageant events that are not scored; therefore you should be yourself at all times.
- e. Scores are tallied by an accountant.
- f. All decisions of the judges are final.
- g. Ties for award winners will be broken by referring back to Judge #1. Judge #1's score will break the tie. If a tie still remains, Judge #2's score will be used...and so on until the tie is broken. Miss Congeniality ties will be broken by a second balloting by contestants. A tie for Miss Rodeo Wyoming and runners-up will be broken by the horsemanship scores, i.e., the contestant with highest score in horsemanship will receive the higher ranking.
- h. In the event of any dispute concerning the decision of the judges, such dispute shall be settled by the MRWA Executive Committee. The Executive Committee's review of any dispute shall be limited to determining if the judges acted in good faith, impartially and in accordance with the applicable rules. If any judge is found to have acted in violation of these rules, the Executive Committee in their discretion may remove such judge and may take any other remedial action they deem appropriate. All decisions of the Executive Committee are final.

12. FORMAL COMPLAINT/GRIEVANCE PROCESS

pageant operations or issues must adhere to the following.

All involved parties will be notified about the complaint and given the opportunity to provide a response. The Executive Committee will vote and determine any necessary action to be taken.

13. PAGEANT DIVISIONS

I) APPEARANCE

- a. Attractiveness - This should also include inner beauty

- d. Poise and posture - Lady-like behavior in every situation.
- e. Knowledge of proper western attire - Contestants should be aware of current western trends and what is fashionable western dress, with particular attention given to color coordination (how the use of various color combinations can enhance appearance and eye appeal). This is not a clothing contest. Judges will be looking for versatility, imagination, how a contestant's clothes fit and how they suit her personality. The length of skirts, pants, and a good crease and hat shape are essential in the "total look." Dresses, skirts, and blouses should reflect a western image. Evening gown and cocktail type dresses are not acceptable. - g. There will be two go-rounds of horsemanship. Patterns to be used will be selected from the diagrams provided at the time of the competition. At the discretion of the judges and committee, patterns may be altered or substituted. Contestants may also be required to do a presentation ride, carry a flag and/or perform additional maneuvers on horseback. Be prepared to ride the same horse the patterns will be performed on. - j. Video taping of the horsemanship is prohibited (no smart phones or tablets will be allowed during horsemanship)

- k. There will be ABSOLUTELY NO COACHING OR TRAINING of either contestant or horse during the horsemanship competitions. Any failure to comply with the rules of this pageant may result in the disqualification of the contestant.

Questions asked may test the contestant's knowledge of the pageant, sponsors, rodeo, horsemanship, horse science, current affairs, or personal (goals, etc.), etc. This could include knowledge of tack, horse care, feeding, diseases, anatomy, etc.; knowledge of professional rodeo, its history, organization, rodeo terminology or vernacular, standard events, championship standings, and awareness of the PRCA and WPRA/PWRA. (Excellent sources of information are the Pro-Rodeo sports news, the Official PRCA Rule Book, and the Official Pro-Rodeo Media Guide all of which are available from the PRCA Office, 101 Pro-Rodeo Drive, Colorado Springs, CO 80919 or www.prorodeo.com). BECOMING MISS RODEO WYOMING

PLEASE BE AWARE

The Miss Rodeo Wyoming Association cannot guarantee that a sponsorship vehicle, horse trailer, or gas card will be provided for Miss Rodeo Wyoming. This is an area where the Miss Rodeo Wyoming Association, MRW, and her family will have to work jointly (most likely in MRW's local area) to approach businesses.

The Miss Rodeo Wyoming Association cannot guarantee that there will not be any financial responsibilities put on MRW or her family. The budget that MRW will work from during her year is dependent on the success of her coronation fundraiser and additional sponsorships.

PREPARATIONS AFTER BECOMING MISS RODEO WYOMING

☺ IT IS A JOB! Please remember that this is a full time job and you have committed yourself by the signing of your contract as MRW. You are the public relations and marketing person for the state of Wyoming, the Miss Rodeo Wyoming Association, and Professional Rodeo. You may have to choose between being a full time student or employee and being Miss Rodeo Wyoming.

☺ CORONATION- The funding for your reign will come primarily from your coronation. The coronation is held in your home town and put on by you, your family, and friends. The MRWA will assist in any way possible on how to get the event planned.

You will need to plan for a dinner/finger foods, cocktails (highly recommended), live auction, silent auction, and dance. Soliciting for auction items is an important thing to start early on. The coronation needs to be held in late October or early November. Set a date and time as soon as possible. It is important to reserve a facility A.S.A.P. along with a band or music entertainment. An auctioneer will be needed along with a bookkeeper to keep track of auction money. Committees will need to be formed to help with finding auction items, a dinner menu/finger foods/etc., and decorations. It is of utmost importance to keep an accurate account of all auction items, monies, tickets sales, donations, etc. An invitation list (similar to a wedding) will be needed and invitations and programs ordered. Upon winning, the new MRW will receive a notebook full of ideas, samples, and suggestions.

☺ BUDGET- The money that is raised from your coronation and sponsorships will be put into a budget for your year. The MRWA treasurer handles all expenses. You turn in receipts to the treasurer and are reimbursed for MRW expenses. You will need to meet with the treasurer for more information. Expenses from your coronation will be taken off the top of your fundraiser/sponsorship income. You will receive a 25% cut and the MRWA will get an equal 25% for operating expenses. The remaining 50% will go into an operating budget for your expenses throughout the year to include travel, wardrobe, MRA program ad, etc.

☺ SPONSORSHIP- It is very important that you coordinate with the sponsorship chair (also vice-president) and the current MRW to include any sponsors that wish to continue their support. There are some sponsors who donate each year and we need to be sure to include them in our benefit package (bio sheets, sponsor banner, MRW program, etc.). We need to ensure that current and potential sponsors receive coronation invitations.

☺ PICTURES- Arrangements for taking pictures with the MRW crown need to be made immediately. You will need these photos for coronation programs, invitations, business cards, bio sheets, and publicity.

☺ BUSINESS CARDS & BIO SHEETS- These need to be ready by November to take to the MRA pageant. Your phone, e-mail and the scheduling coordinator's address, phone, and e-mail need to be included. We suggest not including your street address.

☺ SCHEDULING COORDINATOR, APPEARANCES, & TRAVELING- The MRW scheduling coordinator will arrange for your appearances. All appearances must be approved through the scheduling coordinator!! Any appearances you make before January 1 must be under your local title. Wyoming PRCA rodeos and activities take precedence. We recommend that you attend as many events as possible including engagements at schools, service clubs, and involvement in your community. We strongly suggest that you take time off from school or work so that you can fully devote your time to being MRW. Your year will be an incredible learning experience and educational opportunity. Traveling, meeting people, and exposure is the most important aspect of your title.

☺ MISS RODEO AMERICA PAGEANT OBSERVATION TRIP- You will attend the Miss Rodeo America pageant with the MRW National Director as your chaperone to give you the opportunity to observe the pageant. You will have the chance to take notes, get fashion ideas, and meet other state queens that you will work with during your year. You will need to make travel arrangements in advance. The WY National Director will arrange for hotel and pageant ticket reservations. It is important that you communicate with the National Director so that you know what is expected of you. Keep in mind that that you will be staying with the National Director and she is your personal chaperone while attending the MRA Pageant.

☺ MISS RODEO WYOMING ASSOCIATION- The Miss Rodeo Wyoming Association is made up of volunteers who wish to help Miss Rodeo Wyoming in her quest to represent Wyoming and rodeo. The MRWA members will do everything they can to make your year easier. Please keep in mind that the members are volunteers! The volunteers all have full-time careers, families, and obligations along with volunteering. The MRWA wishes you the best of luck throughout your year, and please remember that it is a lot of hard work, but together we can accomplish a lot! The MRWA is here to help you as much as possible. Make sure you ask questions and communicate.

☺ YOU! You have the opportunity to make a difference in people's lives, put a smile on someone's face, promote Wyoming and rodeo...your opportunities are endless. You will get out of this experience what you put into your role as Miss Rodeo Wyoming. Think not what rodeo can do for you, but what you can do for rodeo! Most importantly, have fun, make friends, and enjoy your year!
