- Congratulations Allie Bass -

Miss Allie Bass officially took over the jade crown of Miss Rodeo Wyoming from Stacy Jo Johnson on January 1st.

Allie is the daughter Bill and Lois Bass of Sheridan. She won the title on August 16, 2008 during the Wyoming State Fair. On the way to the title, Allie was also awarded the horsemanship, personality & knowledge awards.

The Miss Rodeo Wyoming Association is proud to welcome Allie aboard. The Association wishes her an exciting year full of memorable moments as she fulfills the duties of this prestigious title. We look forward to working with Allie as she embarks on the opportunity of a lifetime. We expect good things from her. Congratulations Allie!

- Coronation Moments -

Thank You for Supporting Me!

Miss Rodeo Wyoming 2009 Coronation, Dinner, Dance, and Benefit Auction was a tremendous success. I extend a sincere thank you to all my friends, family, and supporters for making the celebration a lifetime memory!

I feel truly fortunate to have enjoyed your attendance and generosity. My hopes and dreams are inspired by the folks that made my coronation possible. As the 54th young woman to represent the State of Wyoming, I will strive to exemplify the timeless traditions of the sport of rodeo during my travels down the path of Miss Rodeo Wyoming 2009.

“May the good Lord be with you down every road you roam.”

- Allie's Road Report -

2009 has begun and the opportunities to promote our great state and the sport of rodeo are truly exciting. My 2009 activities started in Denver where I attended the Citizens of the West dinner with Miss Rodeo Colorado and Miss Rodeo America.

The Citizen of the West, selected by a committee of community leaders, is an honor bestowed yearly upon individuals who embody the spirit and determination of the western pioneer and are committed to perpetuating the West's agricultural heritage and ideals. The National Western Stock Show recognized, Dick Robinson and Edward Robinson as the 2009 Citizens of the West.

The brothers accepted the prestigious award at the annual award dinner on Jan. 14 at the Hyatt Regency Denver at the Colorado Convention Center. The annual dinner helps kick off the National Western Stock Show, and the proceeds benefit the National

I was honored to meet the Governor of Colorado: Bill Ritter, the mayor of Denver: John Hickenlooper, Colorado senators: Wayne Allard and Ken Salazar, along with Bill & Pete Coors. I enjoyed talking with them and especially Bill's Coors wife as we had our names in common as she was once a Bass.

It was exciting to be part of the great legacy at 103rd National Western Stock Show, Horse Show and Rodeo. I was honored to carry the Wyoming Flag at the rodeo on the 24th, representing our great state. From great food and shopping opportunities to interactive educational experiences, world-class horses, livestock and the PRCA "Indoor Rodeo of the Year" it was a blast.

As January winds down I will be headed towards Rapid City for the Black Hills Stock Show and Rodeo. I also hope to donate to the Rotary Function/ Fundraiser in Sheridan in February. It will feel great to know that I contributed in Rotary's long-standing efforts to eradicate Polio would-wide.

February will be busy as the 13 & 14th I will be attending the Coors Pro Rodeo at the Gillette Complex. Gillette will always resurrect memories for me of High School Rodeo and the state swim meet. Then on to Florida for the Silver Spurs Rodeo, which is the largest rodeo east of the Mississippi and is annually ranked among the top 50 events sanctioned by the PRCA.

See you down the road,
Allie

2008 Miss Rodeo Wyoming represents state well at Miss Rodeo America Pageant

The 2009 Miss Rodeo America Pageant and 54th national pageant took place in December in Las Vegas, NV at the Orleans Hotel & Casino featuring contestants from 27 states. Wyoming was well represented with Stacy Jo Johnson of Laramie serving as Miss Rodeo Wyoming 2008. Her undying determination and dedication in representing the title paid off. Stacy Jo took home the honors of 1st runner-up while Maegan Ridley of California was crowned Miss Rodeo America 2009. Stacy Jo won the coveted personality category award. She was also honored with winning the congeniality and speech awards. The congeniality award is voted on by the contestants and quite an honor to receive. The speech award is based on a two minute speech each contestant gives on their home state and a media interview where questions are asked that reflect information that may be asked in a media type situation. More pageant results and photos can be found at www.missrodeo.com or at http://missrodeoamerica.blogs.com/miss_rodeo_america/2004/11/john_shooter_to.html.

On behalf of the Miss Rodeo Wyoming Association, we want to say thank you to Stacy Jo for the tremendous job she did in representing Wyoming at the Miss Rodeo America Pageant and throughout her rein. Her personality, appearance, and horsemanship abilities were exemplary and very apparent at the national pageant. Her accomplishments were well deserved.

Laurie Thoman-Hernandez, WY National Director

- Exit Interview with Stacy Jo -

What were the best 2 trips or functions during your year?

I had such a wonderful year as Miss Rodeo Wyoming 2008 that it is very difficult to pick my two most favorite trips. One of my favorite trips was to Arizona. Not only did we get to participate in the Payson, Arizona rodeo but we also got to go on a first class train ride to the Grand Canyon. It was amazing to see one of the natural wonders of the world and to spend the week with other state queens who had become some of my best friends. Katie Hill, Miss Rodeo Arizona 2007, was our host and she did an absolute wonderful job of making all of us feel welcome. We also spent some time in Flagstaff where we took a four wheeler ride, that no one will ever let me forget. Many, many memories were made on this trip and it is definitely one that will be remembered. Another special event was attending my local hometown rodeo, Laramie Jubilee Days. Having been Miss Laramie Jubilee 2005 and then Miss Rodeo Wyoming 2008, I couldn't have hoped for anything more. I have grown up at that rodeo and it was great to be surrounded by so many great supporters, sponsors and friends.

What was the most important thing you learned this year?

It seemed like the entire year was just one big educational course! I have always tried to enjoy everyday of life no matter if I was fixing fence in the 100 miles per hour Wyoming wind or enjoying some special time with my family. It seems like many times people get caught up in the mundane tasks of everyday life and they forget to have fun and truly live life to the fullest. That is one thing that I feel like I have accomplished throughout my reign; I learned how to consistently enjoy life and have fun even if I have to make my own in the midst of a not so fun situation. This lesson is one that I will take with me throughout my entire life and hopefully be able to share with people that I come into contact with.

What was the most surprising thing or unexpected thing about your year?

Going into my year, I knew that there were rodeo queens from all over the country that I would get to know and that I would be traveling with. I never expected to have become lifelong friends with these girls. Rodeo queen titles last one year but the friendships that I have made this year are never going to end. I have 26 best friends from all over the country that I will never forget and that have truly made my year as Miss Rodeo Wyoming unforgettable. Without these girls the memories would be shallow, the rodeos much less exciting and there would be none of the inside jokes that we all have that developed over the year. It was something that was unexpected but something that has made such a big impact in my life. I hope I was able to impact their lives as much as they all impacted mine.

Stacy Jo with her loyal supporters at the MRA Pageant.

What was the funniest thing that happened to you this year?

From getting lost in the Grand Canyon, to tripping at the formal breakfast in North Platte, I don't think there was an event that I didn't provide entertainment for many people. I think the one story that most people will remember is the one that Miss Rodeo Idaho shared at the Get Acquainted Party in Vegas. This is one of the many memories that was made in Arizona. We went on a fourwheeler ride and we each went in pairs. Miss Rodeo Idaho, Natalie Bish, announced loudly that she wanted to ride with me because I had some experience on four wheelers. Well.....we were following some other queens up the hill, they did not have enough speed and they started going backwards right into Natalie and I. I decided to let the four wheeler roll backwards to avoid a collision and the wheel slipped on some sand and the four wheeler flipped over on its side. It felt like a horse that was falling down so I reacted by getting off just like I would with a falling horse. Poor Natalie got trapped under the four wheeler and she still thinks I was trying to get rid of her so I didn't have to compete against her in Vegas. No body was hurt and everything ended up being fine. I really wasn't trying to take her out. It is definitely one story that no one will forget.

What rodeo personality did you meet this year that was the most special for you?

I was able to spend a lot of time with Justin McDaniel this past year. He had qualified for the NFR in 2007 but didn't have the best of luck during the week. This year he walked out of the Thomas and

In Vegas with Laurie Thoman-Hernandez (WY-Nat'l Director), Stacy Jo & Allie

Mack Arena with the Bareback Riding gold buckle. I feel very honored to have become friends with a cowboy who truly puts God first in his life and lives his life in a way that others can see his faith and his relationship with the Lord. I am excited to see how much this young Oklahoma cowboy will accomplish in his life and I wish him the best of luck throughout his rodeo career.

What did you like best about the Miss Rodeo America Pageant?

I had such a great time at the Miss Rodeo America Pageant. It was so great to finally be in Vegas competing for Miss Rodeo America, something that I have dreamed about for many years. A text message that my good friend Katie Hill sent me the day before the pageant was, "remember that you are in Vegas, during the NFR, competing for Miss Rodeo America, with all of your best friends. Don't let a single moment go to waste." I thought this was great advice and that is exactly what I did. The girls of course were the best part and there is nothing I would have rather won than the Miss Congeniality Award. I was completely surprised and had no idea that the girls were going to vote for me. I was also very proud to win the speech category as well. I wrote every single word in that speech myself and truly believed every single word that I said about my great state of Wyoming. Personality is a large part of the pageant and having won this category is a true honor. They say that your personality is developed by the age of five. I think that by being true to yourself and not trying to be someone you are not is what keeps your personality pure. I am thrilled to have had the opportunity to compete at the Miss Rodeo America pageant

What would you change about the Miss Rodeo America Pageant?

There is not a single thing I would change about the Miss Rodeo America pageant. I took Katie's advice to heart and I did not let a single moment go to waste. There were many days that I was exhausted and missed my family but I grasped those feelings and thought to myself, "there is never going to be another week where I am exhausted and miss my family because I have danced for 8 hours everyday, had interviews, speeches, fashion show rehearsals, horsemanship, and everything else they had planned for us to do. I embraced these feelings and emotions because I wanted to be able to remember how it all felt when I look back at the experience twenty years from now. It was incredible and I would do everything again in a heartbeat even knowing that I came out first-runner up instead of Miss Rodeo America 2009.

Stacy Jo & Allie during the Fashion Show

What advice would you give to Allie for the coming year?

I have had some great talks with Allie about being Miss Rodeo Wyoming and on knowing what to expect at the Miss Rodeo America pageant. I am sure we will have many more before her year is over. The one piece of advice that I want to tell her is to really get to know every single one of those state queens because like I said before, your reign lasts one year, but those friendships you make will last an entire lifetime. Allie, I wish you the very best year as Miss Rodeo Wyoming 2009. You know I am here for you no matter what and I know that you will make Wyoming proud.

What are your plans for the future?

After winning $6000.00 at the Miss Rodeo America pageant as well as having a scholarship from the Miss Rodeo Wyoming Association, I am proud to say that rodeo queening has paid for my entire education. I have three semesters left at the University of Wyoming to obtain my Bachelor of Science Degree in Dietetics from the College of Agriculture. I will be doing an internship in the pediatric office of Dr. Kleppinger here in Laramie and plan on continuing a career working with young mothers and children. I recently got engaged to Kyle Berger, an incredible man who will truly make my life complete. He was raised on a ranch in Saratoga, Wyoming. We are planning a June wedding. I am excited for my future and all that it holds. I have a hunch that my life has just begun and I have an entire lifetime to enjoy it.

Any last words that you would like to leave us with?

I would like to thank everyone who has been such a great supporter of me throughout my years of queening. I have been very fortunate to have a community that encouraged me to be the very best that I can be. My family, friends and committee have worked so hard to make these opportunities possible and I couldn't have done anything without the help of so many people. Thank you! Thank you! From the very bottom of my heart. Please remember how short life is and don't take even the littlest things in life for granted. The best days are ahead and I hope that my path will cross with each and every one of yours in the year ahead.

God Bless, Stacy Jo Johnson

- Parting Words -

WOW! I can hardly believe the year is gone. It seems like last week I was getting ready to go to the Denver National Western Stock Show; my first appearance as Miss Rodeo Wyoming.. They say when you are having fun, time flies! I definitely had fun throughout my year. They told me the year would fly by and from previous experience I knew this advice was correct. One of my goals was to enjoy every single moment as Miss Rodeo Wyoming and I feel that I achieved and exceeded my goal.

None of my experiences and memories would have been possible without the help of so many people. My family has been incredibly supportive and there is no way to express to them my thankfulness and gratitude for all of the selfless things they did to make sure my dreams came true. There is no way that I will ever be able to repay them and I hope that they understand how grateful I am for all that they have done. A huge thanks to everyone who sponsored me throughout the year. All of the financial support was the only way I was able to have such a successful year. I want to thank the committee for all of the volunteer hours they put into the clinic, the pageant and the association. It is because of all of you that this opportunity was available to me. I plan on being active on the association and helping all of the future Miss Rodeo Wyomingings.

Thank you again from the very bottom of my heart. I had a wonderful year representing all of you and I would do it again in a heartbeat. I have been focused on being a rodeo queen for over six years. I am so happy that I chose to take that path in my life. Now I am in the process of setting new goals, finding new things to focus on and evaluating what I really want to accomplish with the rest of me life. This will be the last article you will see from me. I want you all to know that you hold a very special place in my heart and my year as Miss Rodeo Wyoming will always bring back special memories.

God Bless, Stacy Jo

Association Happenings

After nearly 20 years of service on the Miss Rodeo Wyoming Association, Gwen Hansen has decided to step down as the Scheduling Coordinatory. Gwen has handed over the position to Crystal Myers and will be helping her over the next year to get acquainted with all of details. Gwen, thanks so much for your years of service!

Laurie Thoman-Hernandez, has been elected to the Miss Rodeo America Executive Board for a three year term. This is a very exciting step for Laurie, as this is a position voted on by her peers in the MRA Organization. The MRA Executive Board is made up of 8-9 members who make most of the major decisions regarding MRA, Inc. Congratulations Laurie!

Milestones

The MRWA sends condolences to the Sam & Jennifer Lipp. Sam's grandmother recently passed away. We extend our sympathy to the entire family.

Congratulations to Crystal Rivers (MRW 07), on August 30, 2008 she became the bride of Cody Myers. They were married in Lander at the Sinks Canyon Field Station surrounded by friends and family. Crystal is a Marketing and Sales Representative for Bear Paw Embroidery in Riverton. Cody is the Riverton Middle School Resource Officer and is employed by the Riverton Police Department.

Best wishes to Stacie Kline (MRW 06) and Aaron Thompson. They were married in Custer, South Dakota on October 11, 2008. Word has it that the bride wore orange rodeo queen boots under her wedding dress.

Congratulations to Maggie Engels—Myers (MRW 05) who was married last fall.
